

Hotel information

The participants will be accommodated in the Forton hotel (<https://hotelforton.sk/>) which is located less than 400 meters from the Astronomical institute. The accommodation will be fully covered by the school organizers.

Travel information

Travel costs of students are not covered by the organizers of the summer school. An exception is the cable car trip to the Lomnický štít Observatory. Tickets for the cable car are covered by the school organizers.

Location of the School

Slovak Republic has three major airports: Bratislava:

<https://www.bts.aero/en/>

Poprad: http://www.airport-poprad.sk/index_en.php

Košice: <https://www.airportkosice.sk/en>

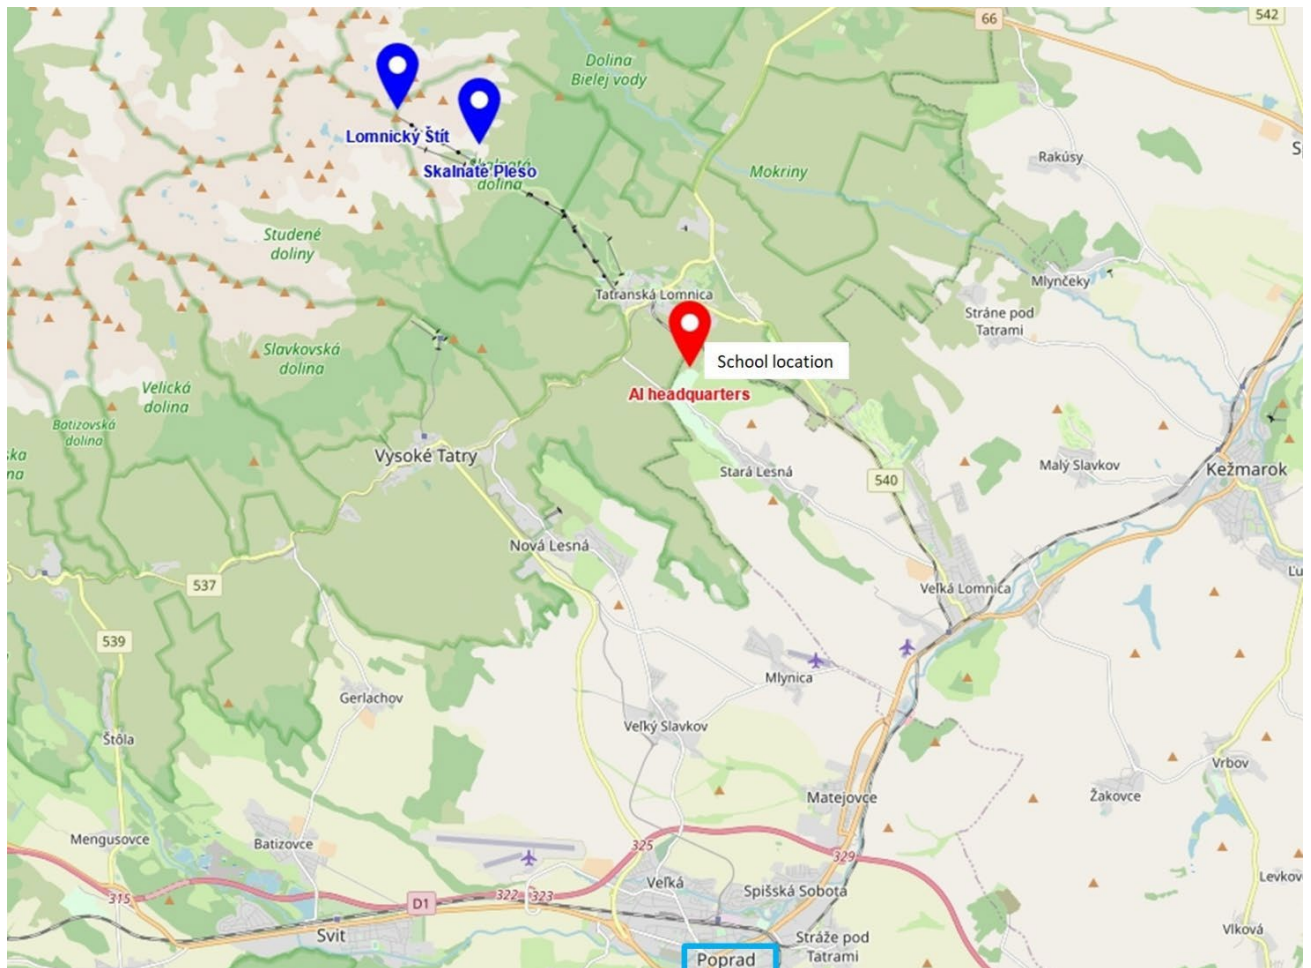

There are other three international airports in the reasonable distance: Vienna:

Budapest: <https://www.bud.hu/en>

Astronomical Institute and School place is located in the northern part of Slovakia, close to the frontier with Poland, being only 20 km from Poprad, the biggest town in the area easily accessible by train and/or bus.

From Vienna airport: Take a bus to Bratislava bus station (<https://www.slovaklines.sk/en/>). From there, go to Bratislava main railway station. Then take a speed train to Poprad.

From Krakow airport: Take a bus to Poprad.

From Budapest airport: Unfortunately, there is no good connection to Poprad. One can take a taxi, but this can be rather expensive solution.

From Bratislava airport: Go to the main railway station and then take a speed train to Poprad.

From Košice airport: Take a taxi or bus to Košice main railway station. Then take a train to Poprad.

From Poprad go to Tatranská Lomnica which is the closest village to the Astronomical Institute. You can use a bus or a train (via Studený Potok) or a tram (via Starý Smokovec) and then a taxi to the FORTON hotel in Stara Lesna village.

The best choice is to take a taxi directly from Poprad to the FORTON hotel in Stara Lesna village, where the accommodation for the School is reserved.
